SUBJECT No. 290.

Management of Inams and Jahgirs granted to Matt.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishnaiya, City Municipaity, Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—Several Matts in the State have Inam villages and Jahgirs granted to them by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraj Wadeyar Bahadur. In addition to the revenue got from the Inams and Jahgirs ready-money grants are also made. Owing to improper management, the income of the Jahgirs and Inams is in arrears. It is desirable to relieve the Matadhipathis of the trouble of managing the Jahgirs and Inams as well as of supervising the charities connected with the Matts. To do this it is advisable to appoint managing committees consisting of five members from among the disciples of the Matt, so that the Matadhipathis may devote their whole time to their spiritual concerns and offer prayers to the Almighty to shower His choicest blessings upon His Highness the Maharaja and his family.

Note.—The member explained that he wanted the Government to manage the property of such institutions.

Reply of Government.—This matter is one requiring careful consideration.

SUBJECT No. 291.

Resumption by Government of Inam lands granted for charitable purposes.

(1) Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit, District Board, Mysore District
(2) Mr. Seetaramaiya of the Chikmagalur Taluk.
(3) Mr. Srikantaiya, Maddagiri Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The holders of Inam lands granted by His Highness the late Maharaja for charitable purposes are defeating the object of the grant by misappropriating the income derived therefrom. It is therefore prayed that such lands may be resumed by Government and charities restored.

Note.—In speaking on this subject, Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit referred to Bale Ursoo's chattram at Kadakola which, he said, was proposed to be re-built and where so costly a chattram was unnecessary. He also referred to the endowment in Yedatore to the Nanjangud temple.

Reply of Government.—Misappropriations of endowments must be enquired into by Deputy Commissioners and Jamabandi Officers and reports submitted every year.
